

Description

You work for a secret intelligence agency. One of your undercover agent managed to steal an important intel from “Enemy of the State Corporation”. You know that they use a new encryption scheme with Shift CPB Cipher (contains md5). Unfortunately, the specification of the cipher was incomplete because he didn’t have top level clearance. The director wants you to crack the encrypted PDF file and get the intel.

Hint: think about the input and output length